

Alan Eugene Wilson

August 14, 1963 - March 7, 2025

Alan Eugene Wilson was born on August 14, 1963, in Salina, Kansas, to Eugene and Judy Wilson. He peacefully passed away at the age of 61 in Dewey, Oklahoma.

A graduate of Salina High School South, Alan later moved to the Bartlesville area, where he became deeply involved in a variety of interests. Notably, he was an active member of the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA), a global historical reenactment organization, where he enjoyed engaging with history and connecting with others.

Alan is preceded in death by his parents, Eugene and Judy Wilson, and his younger brother, Jeffery Wilson. He is survived by his sister, Kimberly (Fred) Thiel; his children, Joclyne and Hunter Wilson, Austin (Amanda) Little, Dallas (Jena) Little, and Casey Little; as well as seven grandchildren, three nephews, and three nieces. He is also survived by numerous extended family members and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to the American Diabetes Association.

A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date, and interment will take place in Anderson, Missouri

“ Tristram (Glumpie) gave me a great kindness when he made this for me as a gift after Lilies 10. It has always hung on my wall in a prominent place ever since. It is his great kindness and smile that I always remember about him.
