“My husband and I just learned of your passing. We are truly heart broken. We didn't know you well but at the same time, felt like you were family. You had such a wonderful personality and friendly disposition. We think of you often and you will always be in our hearts. Our prayers and sympathy go out to all of your family and friends - you spoke of them candidly.

“ Alex I think of you and my heart smiles but, with tears you had the best personality and that contagious laugh. The family is heartbroken and lost for words family functions won't be the same without “cuz” around. We all love ya! Rest easy now.

“ I will miss you terribly. The love and laughter we shared being each other's friend,lover,and partner in life is something that I will treasure forever. Alex you showed me what true love was all about. I'm very thankful for the short 2 years that we had together. Id rather have a lil bit of you in my life than none at all. I will now only have memories of u. Wish I could have more time with you. I love u honey.
