“ I met Kelly at church shortly after she moved to Bartlesville. We became good friends right off. We enjoyed spending time together no matter what it was. We both loved studying the Bible. We did crafts together and laughed so hard when playing mexican train dominoes. No matter where we went she reached out to people and would start a conversation. She loved working in her yard and worked so hard on her landscaping. She was always there when I needed prayers for a situation. She loved her family and prayed for their walk with God. I will miss her so much.

“ Kelly was a good neighbor and a great friend. She was a blessing to me at a difficult time in my life. We helped each other out a lot and I always knew I could depend on her. We became close and I will miss seeing her pass by my home while walking her dog Paddy. I'll miss having coffee with her on her porch, or taking a dip in her pool on a hot summer afternoon. She was a good person.
