“ As a long time friend of Bettie and her wonderful family. She was always so very proud of her family. I could see it on her face. The way her eyes would light up when her family was around no matter the event. You could count on Bettie to always be honest and caring. With a sassy sense of humor now and then. She had a big heart though something i think she passed to her family. Now is the time to celebrate her life. As i am certain she is celebrating in heaven with Raymond right now smiling down on you all.
