BETTY LOUISE HICKS

Betty Louise Hicks, 83, of Bartlesville died April 21, 2015 in Bartlesville after a brief illness.

Betty was born to Harley and Margaret (Crosslin) Hicks on March 5, 1932 in Bartlesville.

She grew up in Dewey and throughout her life lived in the Bartlesville area. She had many friends and many interests during her life. In her forties she decided to work in a hospital and became an LPN (Licensed Practical Nurse) at the old hospital in downtown Bartlesville. She taught herself to play the organ and would often play her organ at home. Betty learned to make large stuffed dolls and to sew the clothes for them on her sewing machine. She joined for a short time with the storm chasers and had a CB radio to keep track of things. She was active in the Methodist Church and was a member of the Civitan Club. Betty was the oldest child and was a great big sister.

Betty is survived by her sister Harlene (Hicks) Shaw of Onalaska Wisconsin, her brother James Harley Hicks and wife Judith Ann of Tulsa Oklahoma and her closest friend and caretaker

Ann Burns of Bartlesville Oklahoma along with Ann's children Sunshine, Amber, Casey and 7 grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Mel Stewart of Bowring

Oklahoma, her brother Tommy Hicks of Dewey Oklahoma, her sister Mary (Hicks) Shafer of Dewey Oklahoma and her sister Sally (Hicks) Keller of Arlington Texas.

A graveside memorial service for family and friends will be held at 2 pm Tuesday May 12, 2015 at the White Rose Cemetery at 11th Street and Virginia Avenue in Bartlesville where Betty's ashes have been interred, with Assistant Pastor Chad Perceful, East Cross United Methodist Church, officiating. Flowers may be sent to the White Rose Cemetery.
