

Brian Allen Dye Sr

November 27, 1947 - February 12, 2019

Brian Allen Dye Sr., 71, of Nowata, Oklahoma, died Tuesday, February 12, 2019.

Brian was born in Barnsdall, Oklahoma on November 27, 1947 to parents Rex and Doris Jean (Ward) Dye. He married Annette Sisson in 1965. They later divorced. He married Maudie Blackburn on September 25, 2010.

He was an archeologist and worked as a locksmith and private detective. He was employed at Conoco Phillips, ran his own Vac company, and worked at Jarvis Incorporated for many years.

Brian and his brother, Bruce, would go out west to New Mexico and the four-corner area to climb volcanos to hunt for fossils and artifacts. This is something they did every September for over 20 years. He could work on autos, do home repairs, and almost anything he was asked to do. He was loved very much by family and friends.

Brian is survived by wife Maudie A. (Blackburn) Dye of the home; children Brenda Owens and husband Dennis of Nowata and Brian Dye Jr. of Nowata; brothers Rex Dye Jr. and wife Monica of Hanson, Kentucky and Pete Chair and wife Lisa of Stillwell, Oklahoma; sisters Gayna (Chair) Jones and husband Paul of Stillwell, Oklahoma, Janice (Dye) Medina and husband Patrick of Bartlesville and Vicki (Dye) Boyd of Nowata; grandchildren Rachel Parrish and husband Louis, Renee Black, Jake Black, Brian Dye III and wife Michaela, Megan Dye, Austen Dye, Naomi and husband Chris Bentley, Natasha and husband Michael McEwen, William and Amber Tate, Marque and Makayla Harmon and Brayden Stewart; great grandchildren Rakiah Parrish, Olivia Briag, Bryson Dye, Ember McEwen, Alexandria McEwen and Harley Nelson.

He was preceded in death by his parents Rex Dye and Doris Jean (Ward) Chair; brothers Randy Dye and Bruce Dye; sister Phyllis Kern; daughters Tina Tate and Barbara Dye and granddaughter Sarin Peterson.
