“ We loved Don and Marki and will miss them both dearly. I could listen for hours to Don's army and farm stories and Marki's dry, sassy sense of humor. She was so funny. Don was the best neighbor, and I'll never forget his willingness to help us put up a new fence when we moved in. Don was the best, and he kept our neighborhood safe. Don and Marki loved that great-grandson and would show me his pictures every time we visited. Don and Marki, I can't wait to see you again in glory land. I love you both.
