“ To Don's Family: My wife, Dee Ann, and I offer our condolences. Don and I have been friends since grade school. I have many fond memories of playing around the neighborhood as kids and later riding scooters. During our high school years we'd drag our old Fords, swim and party at the river, and of course go to the "V" most Sat. nights. Later in life we got together every once in a while with Podge (Floyd) Lindersmith and Eldon Lugsford. Podge preceded Don in death by four days, and I'm sure they're having a good visit now. Don may no longer be here with us, but he will live on in our memories.

“ To Don's Family,

As cousins, Don and I had some pretty wild times together. Perhaps one of the most memorable was when we went together to be on television. It was Tulsa's version of American Bandstand. What a time we had!

Please know that I am thinking of you in your time of sorrow.
