

Dovie Sue Henry

May 14, 1940 - December 26, 2023

Dovie Sue (Branstetter) Henry passed away on December 26, 2023, at her home in Barnsdall, Oklahoma. Dovie was born in Barnsdall to Ernest Y. (Pete) and Sylvia (Clark) Branstetter on May 14, 1940. She received her education in Barnsdall graduating with the class of 1958. She attended Success Secretarial School in Bartlesville. She and William H. (Bill) Henry were married on August 14, 1964, in Barnsdall, Okla. They made their home in Barnsdall except for a few early years in Perry, Okla. Dovie worked for Reda Pump Company and Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville, Okla., and Ditch Witch Company in Perry, Okla. during her early years. After returning to Barnsdall Dovie became a substitute teacher in the Barnsdall School System for many years. She was also on the Board of Directors for the City Library in Barnsdall. Dovie enjoyed reading, cooking, and flower gardening. She and her sister Diana walked every day for exercise for many, many years. Dovie is survived by her husband Bill Henry of the home, and six sisters, Patsy Moore, Dorothy Murrie, Joyce Swan, Janie Price, Sylvia Raney, and Diana (Jackie) Miller. Two brothers, Joe (Janice) Branstetter and Stephen (JoEllen) Branstetter. She is also survived by a sister-in-law Karen (Max) Cook. Although she and Bill had no children, they were always surrounded by lots of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. Those there to greet Dovie in Heaven were her Mom and Dad, Pete and Sylvia Branstetter, two brothers Dan Branstetter and Billy Branstetter, and one sister Glenda (Cricket) Chastain. The family would like to thank everyone for your kind words and prayers during these past few weeks. Words cannot express our appreciation. The family would especially like to thank the Rivercross Hospice people for their compassionate and thoughtful care in making Dovie's last days comfortable and peaceful. We were blessed to have Dovie in our lives, and she will be missed tremendously.
