“ Dustin “Dut” was an awesome brother! I love him and I will miss him tremendously until we meet again in Heaven. I could talk to him and tell him anything. He always knew what to say to make me feel better and it genuinely came from his heart. He was a fine young man with a heart of gold and he loved his family. He valued God and family and knew they were the important precious things in life. I loved hearing him say, “golly”, “nobody messes with daddy’s girls” and “love ya, love ya, love ya!”
