

Elizabeth Louise Stahley

October 29, 1930 - March 21, 2017

Elizabeth Louise Stahley, age 86, resident of Sun City Center, FL, passed away March 21, 2017 at Jane Phillips Medical Center in Bartlesville, OK. She was born Oct. 29, 1930 to John and Helen Redis in Erie, PA. She grew up in South Renovo, PA and graduated from St. Joseph's High School in Renovo. While in high school, she worked at The Renovo Record and was her high school yearbook editor. After graduation, she worked for awhile in Philadelphia for The Philadelphia Enquirer and in Emporium, Pa for Sylvania. Bette married Marvin Stahley at St Joseph's Church in Renovo on May 25, 1957. She is survived by 4 boys and their spouses – Todd (Mary) of Bartlesville, OK; Tim (Linda) of State College, PA; Scott (Iwona) of Wesley Chapel, FL; and Robert (Carla) of Odessa, FL as well as five siblings and twelve grandchildren. Bette was preceded in death by her parents; husband; one brother; one sister, and a daughter, Beth Anne.

She was a licensed insurance agent, enjoyed detailed work and was proud of her exquisite penmanship. Bette was an avid reader, a seasoned Bingo player, loved crossword puzzles and could occasionally be spotted in a casino. However, she most enjoyed spending time with her twelve grandchildren.

While she spent most of her life in Pennsylvania, she moved with her family from Pennsylvania to Florida in 1984 due to Piper aircraft consolidation affecting her husband's job. She will be returned to Pennsylvania for services and burial. Stumpff Funeral Home coordinated arrangements in Bartlesville, and arrangements for services and burial will be coordinated by Maxwell Funeral Home in Renovo, Pa. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to either Bucktail Medical Center or St. Joseph's Church (both in Renovo, Pa) or the American Heart Association.
