

Elmer "Randy" RL Sells

October 10, 1935 - February 7, 2023

Elmer "Randy" Sells, 87, of Tulsa, formerly of Skiatook and Stilwell, passed away on February 7, 2023 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was born October 10, 1935 in Carnegie, Oklahoma to Rhubie Luther and Alice Lee (Combest) Sells Skinner. Randy served his country in the United States Marine Corps. He married Jane Elizabeth Nelson on December 21, 1958. Randy received his Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Southwestern Oklahoma State University in 1960. He was named male student teacher of the year in 1960. Randy earned his Master's degree in Counseling in 1965 from SWU. He worked as an administrator and conflict negotiator for the Bureau of Indian Affairs in New Mexico, Alaska and Arizona. Randy enjoyed folk and classic country music, singing and playing his guitar. He also liked hunting, hiking and camping. Seeing the bison and hiking the trails at Tall Grass Prairie Preserve were favorite activities.

He is survived by his wife Jane of the home, two daughters: Janece Ohlman and husband Jim of Arizona; Latisha Aguiar and husband Tony of Idaho; grandchildren: T.J. and Ashley Ohlman of Texas; Robert C. and Ali Ohlman of California; Jon and Kalie Ohlman of Colorado; Sarah Ohlman of Arizona; Logan Davis of Missouri; great grandchildren: Hayley, Bryan, Piper, Alex, Harper, Raelynn, Aubrey, Eliette, Ophelia Ohlman, Adrian and Jasmine Davis, a sister Diann Campbell, spouse Lynn and family, an aunt Betty Davis and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, step-father Melvin Skinner and two brothers: Kenneth and Billy.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Joseph H. Williams Tall Grass Prairie Preserve-Nature Conservancy