

Francis William Barnett

September 21, 1943 - July 24, 2024

The Family of Francis William Barnett regret to announce his passing on July 24, 2024. Francis was born on September 21, 1943 to Albert Elmo Barnett and Alpha (Davis)Barnett in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He grew up in Copan, Oklahoma where he graduated and played football at Copan School. In 1960 they were Bi-District Champs, and he was All District Tackle.

At the time of his death, he was married to Wilma Barnett. They were married on October 25, 1990. They were married 33 good years and Wilma stayed by his side constantly during his last days.

Francis retired from Reda Pump after 40 years. At one time they tried to get him back to fix a machine for them because he was the best man to fix it, but he declined. At home he loved gardening and taking drives with Wilma. He also liked taking his grandchildren and great grandchildren on golf cart rides.

He was preceded in death by his father Albert Barnett, and mother Alpha Barnett, his brother Albert Barnett, sisters Kay Barnett, Carol Jean Blevins, and nephew Kenny Blevins.

He is survived by his wife Wilma Barnett, his children Pamala (Gene)Arnold, Tracy (Kim) Barnett, Lafe (Janet) Barnet, Alan (Mandi) Swindell and Tamara(Mitch)Antle. His Grandchildren Cameron Barnett, Katie (Greg)

Hudson, Blake McCammon, Dani (Aaron) Calvert, Jacob (Corrinne) Barnett, Carli Barnett, Kaitlyn (Ty) Flannery, Nicholas (Avery) Barnett, Michael Barnett, Peyton Kamiski, Isabella Barnett, Andrew Swindell, Jude Swindell, Caleb Antle and Josh Antle. And many great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews and lots of greats.

The service will be held at Word of Truth Fellowship in Dewey, Oklahoma, at 10am, on July 30th, 2024. There will be a short graveside service at Sunnyside Cemetery in Caney, Kansas.
