Francis Mae Mitchell 10/30/1931 - 12/15/2021

Francis was born, raised and graduated from High School in Stratford, Oklahoma, and earned an Executive Secretary Degree from the Draughn School of Business in Oklahoma City.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Myrtle (Walker) and Astor Jones, siblings: Lorene Wood, Thelma Savage, Evan Jones, Mary Donham, and her husband Paul Mitchell. Francis is survived by her sister Joyce Weaver and sister-in-law Peggy Jones.

Francis and Paul Mitchell were married May, 1953 in Stratford and soon after established their home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma, remaining here until her death. She worked at Phillips Petroleum Company as secretary to Ken Treadway in the Recreation Department for many years, and after early retirement joined MaryKay's team of Consultants and attained Sales Director status.

The Mitchell's were active and committed members of the Church of Christ - both Dewey and Bartlesville. They were leaders, teachers and missionaries for their church, oftentimes opening their "House On the Hill" for church activities. Many youth fished their pond, played tennis on their court, walked the woods and rode Francis horse "Trick".

Francis was a "Special Lady"- sweet, kind, gentle, caring and giving. Her extended family, nieces and nephews, were an important part of her life, always sharing gifts and treats with the little ones.
