November 17, 1998 - February 14, 2021

Garrett Wayne Hesslen, 22, of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, died February 14, 2021. He was born to Rebecca and Kurt Hesslen on November 17, 1998 in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Garrett was a full-time student at Tulsa Community College majoring in Nursing with plans to transfer to Oklahoma Wesleyan University this fall. He graduated from Wesleyan Christian School in 2017.

Garrett loved Theological history and was very knowledgeable of bible scripture. He also enjoyed mastering new languages and was a fluent speaker in French, Mandarin and Portuguese and was studying his newest language, Hebrew. He also had a passion for creating music and playing music through digital and piano. His latest interest was a vintage Mercedes restoration that he had planned with his dad.

“ I hope that through our prayers, you feel a sense of the love that I and so many others have for you. I will miss your stories and sense of humor, as there's never been anyone who could make me laugh as you did.

Though I wish we could have just one more conversation, I know that I'll have to wait until the next life, and I am consoled to know that in all that time you will be in the greatest joy which is the presence of the Lord. May you be borne up to Heaven by the Angels to be received by Our Blessed Lord, His Holy Mother, and all the Saints into eternal bliss.

Peace be with you, Garrett.

“ I remember meeting Garrett and immediately knowing that I had met someone who was to be my best friend the rest of my life. We had known each other for seven years and have been through so much together. Everyday was a new problem and we went to each other if we needed anything. I don't think I will ever have a friend or even best friend on the same wave length that Garrett was. I will miss him everyday. It's crazy how fast seven years can go by and suddenly they're gone. Sending lots of love and prayers to his closest friends and his family.

“Garrett, my one and only grandson, oh how I am going to miss you. I will not forget your life. I will not forget the theological talks we had. I am convinced with out a doubt of how much you loved our Lord. You so loved your mom and dad....even your sis, Maeghan. I enjoyed your company and little antics. We had fun eating at your favorite Italian restaurant that you loved in Sand Springs when you came to visit me. Yes, I kept getting squirted with your water squirters in the pool but I loved playing in your mom and dad's pool with you and Maeghan. Remember the different hair styles we all made in the pool😓? We played with the Bantam chickens. Your daddy sure had their little mansion looking good and safe. Did I mention eating at all the fun places? Oh, yeah, I know I did😊 and, I may again! And, you were so proud of the Vintage Mercedes that you and your dad rebuilt. It was like a beautiful tank! You enjoyed talking to me about your nursing studies. It's fun when your "Nanny" is also a nurse. The Nursing profession is very special. And, it fit you, royally. Some day soon, all of your family will be together, again in Heaven. We will glorify our Lord and Saviour for life eternal with Him.

I loved you, Your "Nanny".
