“ Lorene honey,I’m missing you already I really liked talking to you late at night and loved it when we went to the YMCA and did water exercises and just really enjoyed being together no matter what we did.when you were little and you didn’t want to stay in the back yard dad and our grandfather put up a chain link fence to keep you in the back yard to play. They were very happy and went around to the front and were sitting in the swing with a cup of coffee they looked over at the driveway and there you stood the could not believe you got out of the back yard. They went around back and the gate was laying on the ground, you had lifted the gate up by yourself and it fell off the rods and you wasted no time coming to the front lol they had the rods both facing up so they fixed it right and made you safe I will never forget you and will love you always, love your FIRST sister lol

“ Lorene will be missed. No matter what was going on at the time, she always made you smile and laugh. I always called Lorene and Cheryl my Sisters. I lost touch with Lorene the past few years but always ask Cheryl about her. Lorene absolutely lived for her children and grandchildren. Her life revolved around them. She has gained her wings and now she is with her Mom, Dad and sister Judy!! Prayers sent to family and friends!!
Much love to you all!!

“ Hey Sissy,
You always called me sissy, made me feel real special. You always had a way of making me laugh no matter how down I was feeling.
You made everyone laugh until they cried.
Always pulling pranks on us when we were young like when you wanted me to always pull your finger, lol trust me it only took one time of pulling your finger to know what that meant. I can hear you laughing as I remind you of this prank, again you are making me laugh as heartbroken as I am. Everyone misses you and loves you very much! I want to thank you for being the loving and caring big sissy that you were.
We will all be together
again one day , so until we meet again.
Your Sissy, Teresa
I Love You So Much xoxoxo

“ I miss you so much nana! I remeber the time me and you were going to California when i was about 7 or 8 i don't exactly remember what we went there for but we did and we rode a bus all the way there, when we first got on i started crying because i didn't want to leave mom and you called her and told her i was crying and you comforted me and told me it was gonna be okay. We have so many memories together and i wish we could have made more because we were so close ! I miss you so much and i love you too!💕

“ Aunt Glenda, you were always so fun to be around. My favorite memory was when we were at the hospital seeing mom and we decided to go for a break. You asked me to push you in this oversized wheelchair because I was young. You, Cheryl, and I were headed to the elevator. As we were approaching the door opened it was empty, I looked at Cheryl and said watch this!! I pushed you in facing the back wall, pushed all the buttons so you would stop at every floor and stepped out before the doors closed!! There was a dietary worker waiting on the next elevator that just looked at us and said no you didn't!! Cheryl and I laughed so hard as we heard you yelling and cussing all the up. We made it to the first floor and waited for you. I will never forget your reaction when you finally caught up with us. I will cherish this memory forever and remember it when I need a good laugh. Give Grandma a big kiss for me!! Thank you for the memories love you —Michelle❤️❤️❤️

“ Hey Glenda I'll always remember when we would spend the night or weekends with mom. We always got her to sleep and then we would sneak out and talk all night with Anna and Roger and other residents of Northside. We would sneak into the kitchen for snacks and never went to sleep. That was the best of times we spent together with you, me and mom. I'll always love you and miss my big sis to the day I die. Give my love to Dad, Mom and Judy and be sure to keep some for yourself. Please dont let Mom know that we stayed up all night without her, she wont like it, lol. Love you sis!!!!

“ Glenda I always enjoyed our time together, you never made it boring. Lots of laughs and good memories. I'm happy that I was your favorite! 😊 Although you could make everyone laugh you also had the ability to make all the sisters and brothers panick. You would wait till everyone was in an elevator and you would say, "Uh Oh!" All of our eyes would bulge out and we went into panick mode immediately. Assoon as the doors would open we would all charge out of the elevator doors, you being the last one out and you would laugh at us. You thought it was so funny because even though all of us would forget, we would always get back on the elevator with you again. Lol I honestly believe you enjoyed that! Hahahaha I love you Glenda and I wish you would've stayed in Oklahoma I missed you being around and us getting together. Know that you will be missed and everytime I get on an elevator I'm gonna remember the hilarious times. I'm at peace knowing you are with Dad and Mom and Judy! It's time to make them panick lol
