

HANAH NYCOLE PUGA

January 6, 1992 - November 23, 2012

Hanah Nycole Puga, 20, left us to be with her Lord Thursday November 23rd, 2012. With such a free spirit she needed to be free from the constraints here on earth. The sky will never be as blue, the stars will never shine as bright and the air will never be as sweet as it was while she was here with us.

Hanah was a self taught musician; she played the drums, guitar and bass guitar. She wrote her own lyrics and music. Her favorite things while here on this earth were music, sports and family.

Hanah played basketball, soccer, and loved to run. She was a Varsity team member for Ponca City High School Soccer all four years of high school. She was the sophomore homecoming attendant and she graduated in 2010. She then attended Oklahoma Wesleyan University where she played soccer also. She was employed by Quick Trip.

She is survived by her parents Tony and Kym Puga, two brothers Braxton and Kris Puga, one sister Rikki Rodriguez of Ft. Worth, Texas. Grandmother Molly Colvin of Odessa, Texas, Grandparents Don and Hope Hall of Crane, Texas. Uncles David Puga of Crane, Texas, Tommy Puga of Midland, Texas, Kris Crow and wife Tisha of Odessa, Texas, Jack and Nancy Henry of Odessa, Texas. Eleven cousins and Godmother RaMona Baughn of Midland, Texas. Numerous friends , but a few that are so close they must be mentioned

Charles Peterson of Rankin, Texas, Miley Barrandey and family of Midland, Texas, Guy and Stephanie Buckland of Bartlesville, Bennie and Lisa Armendarez and family of Bartlesville.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 PM on Wednesday in the Stumpff Funeral Home Chapel. Friends who wish may sign the online guest book and leave condolences at www.stumpff.org

Please find help for teens who struggle with depression. A memorial has been established and those who wish to make a contribution in memory of Hanah Nycole may do so to the Society for the Prevention of Teen Suicide 110 W. Main St. Freehold, New Jersey 07728.

on the edge of my world

on the side of the road

Waiting for my cab to come

Does anybody hear her? “

“ I did not know Hanah or your family but I saw her obituary on line and I wanted to tell you how sorry I am for your loss, and to share a scripture with you from the Bible. Psalms 56:8 states "Do put my tears in your skin bottle. Are they not in your book." God knows the emotional impact our trials have on us, he is aware and takes note of each one of them. I hope this brings your family some comfort during this difficult time.

“ Tony, Kym and family; My heart is burdened for your loss and my prayer for you is that comfort will come quickly, pain will cease and you will find beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning. May the great God of comfort carry you through this difficult time in your lives. May he bring you a peace that passes all understanding.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Hanah's' family and friends.

Hanah had such a strong presence in high school. Her winning smile and quick wit will be remembered. She passed too soon from this world.

I wish you strength at this unimaginable time.

“ Hanah, at times through the years you were like part of the family - where Heidi was, there you were! Had a blast the 4 of us at soccer tournaments - always looking for the nearest Krispy Kreme! I remember Heidi coming home from school in 2nd grade telling me she had a new friend named Hanah - and she didn't like those "girlie" clothes, either! I loved your humor and joking around with you - you have a special place in my heart, always!! You are missed!

“Kym, my heart and deep thoughts go out to you and your family. I know your heart feels as though it will never heal. Tragedies can hold mysterious miracles. I pray her life light will continue to shine through all of those who loved her.

I pray for your strength and the bonded love of family hold you up in the upcoming weeks.

Your Friend,

Fran
