“ The Resnick Family (Anna, Kathleen, and Joanne) want to extend our sympathy and prayers to your family. Helen and my Mom, Anna, grew up together and remained friends. The Polish people were always a close knit community in Bartlesville. I always enjoyed talking with Helen and hearing her stories.

“ Helen was one of the best people I ever knew. She had a way of making everyone feel loved. The years we worked together was some of the best, she could make us laugh when we were so busy and made you feel special. I always loved her stories of growing up in B'Ville, I will never forget Ms Helen.

“Mary Lou and all of Mrs. Pikul's family - what a wonderful life she did live, bringing laughter and caring all around. Our most recent memory of her was when she stood at the Fielder's wedding anniversary celebration and just talked to the crowd - what a lady - and we could see why everyone loved her and how she brought her wonderful sense of humor to everything she did. What a long life she had and how blessed you all are to have had her this long time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this life celebration. Love, Bonnie and Denny Williams
