

Isla Mae Spencer

April 15, 1928 - June 7, 2021

Isla Mae Spencer of Bartlesville, Oklahoma died on Monday, June 7, 2021, at the age of 93. Isla was born to John M. Klatka and Julianna Lorchick on April 15, 1928, in Hamlet, Nebraska.

Isla married the late Frank Spencer in 1949. Her and her husband moved to Pawhuska, Oklahoma in 1951 with their firstborn daughter Judith, where Frank was editor, general manager, then publisher of Pawhuska Daily Journal Capital. Isla later had 7 more healthy children, as well as 10 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren.

After establishing and running a loving home for her and Frank's eight children, and after nourishing and seeing their last child well into his school years, in the later 1970s, Isla started a working life outside the home. She firstly worked part time at Wright's Ready-to-Wear for women and then full time at J.C. Penny and Co in Pawhuska. By 50, she had entered a new phase of life and had become a fully independent working woman. Through the early 1980s she continued with J.C. Penny until its closure, and at 55 years she joined the new Walmart, which had opened in Pawhuska - she worked as the shoes manager until she transferred to the greater Walmart Store in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She worked as shoes manager for 20 years and then became a door greeter the last 11 years. She remarkably went on to exceed a 30-year career with Walmart where she was widely known and greatly loved by colleagues and customers. She loved being around people and she opted to retire only at 87!!
