

Jackie Lane Weaver

April 27, 1956 - December 13, 2025

Jackie Lane Weaver, affectionately known as Jacks, Casper, and Jackie Sparrow, passed away peacefully at her home in Collinsville on December 13, at the age of 69.

Jackie was born on April 27, 1956, in Branson, Missouri, to Ruby Blevins Davis and the late Jack Blevins. She later earned her GED, a reflection of her determination and perseverance.

Jackie found joy in the simple pleasures of life, especially being outdoors. She loved swimming on warm, sunny days—particularly when the temperature climbed above 90 degrees. A devoted animal lover, she took great care of the creatures around her home and found special joy in faithfully feeding the birds. Jackie was also a passionate fan of The Walking Dead, collecting calendars and DVDs, and she never missed an OU football game. Golfing was another pastime she enjoyed.

Above all, Jackie was known for her radiant positivity. No matter how someone's day was going, she had a way of making them smile. She was kind, caring, and always willing to help others whenever she could.

Her children meant everything to her, and her grandchildren were truly her whole world. Though words can never fully capture her spirit, Jackie's love, warmth, and laughter will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

Jackie is survived by her loving mother, Ruby; her sisters, Connie Finn, Kay Catalono, and Joyce Griggs-Crossnoe; her former husband, Robert Weaver; her daughter, Shelly Weaver; and her son, Robert Weaver Jr. She is also survived by her cherished grandchildren, Alexandria Weaver, Kelso Wilkinson, and Kenzie, Kayla, and Kyler Weaver.

She was preceded in death by her father, Jack; her brother, Bucky; and her beloved best friend, Tracy.
