“ I have great memory's of your dad when he lived out on your land NE of Dewey. He would come in and we would all be playing poker and he would just smile and shake his head at all the crazy things that we would be saying and doing while we were playing. Then he would hang out for as long as he could stand all of us, never said we should calm down or anything just told us to be careful and not to burn the place down or kill one of us doing something stupid. Your dad was a great person and he will be thought of fondly by me for as long as i live. I am so sorry for your loss and my thought and prayers will be with you all.

Sincerely,
Russell Brewer
