Janet lived life to the fullest doing the things she loved. She had a way of making people laugh and smile with her quick wit and magnetic personality through her laughter she lit up many people's lives. She was very competitive in everything she did starting at a young age where her love for sports began in high school playing basketball and cheerleading. She was an avid Oklahoma Sooners fan, in true fashion, Boomer Sooner. She loved spending time with her family and friends and her cats. She was very close with her daughter, but above all she cherished her grandkids and the closeness she had with each of them. She enjoyed everything from baking, to watching her grandkids play sports, watching her tv shows, playing candy crush and playing card games with family and her closest friends. Janet accepted the Lord as her savior and although at times strayed, she knew in her heart she was going to be with the Lord. She was very loved and will be missed dearly.
