

Jesse Cayne Lee Terry

November 2, 1993 - March 21, 2024

Jesse Cayne Lee Terry, age 30, passed away on March 21, 2024 in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. He was born in Bartlesville, Oklahoma on November 2, 1993 to David Wayne Terry and Carrie Denise (Stumpff) Terry.

Jesse had the biggest smile and the most antic jokes. His heart was as big as the world. He put his all into everything. He was the youngest of four kids Jesse was ornery to say the least. Loved hunting, fishing, playing pool, and anything with a motor. The outdoors is where he loved to be, and he also enjoyed working at Gorman Construction. Life was full of ups and downs, and he carried his heart on his sleeve and was everybody's best friend.

Jesse had made peace with God and was happy in his life with his spouse and his children. Jesse is survived by his four children; Kayden Lee Terry, Everly Jayde Terry, Maiah Ann Terry, and Malia Lynn Terry, His girlfriend; Treasure Collins and his stepson Sammy Gonzalez, his father; David Wayne Terry, his mother; Carrie Denise Stumpff, his sisters; Amie and Emily Terry, a brother; Josh Terry and six nephews and three nieces, lots of cousins, aunts and uncles. He is preceded in death by his fraternal grandparents Fred and Wanda Terry, his fraternal Uncle Steve and Aunt Dori. His maternal grandparents Wendell Stumpff and Carol Shetley as well as his beloved Shelby Sanders. His greatest joy in life was making people laugh and putting a smile on your face. He truly loved his children, and he stood up for what he believed in. Until we meet again, the sky's the limit.

“ You were my baby boy, always funny and smiling even when things got hard, you found a way to fix it. you were the glue to our family. My heart is broken son
I will miss you so much, you were a good son and father, and friend. I love you so much. And looking for you in a cloud. you were too young and I've asked God why and he needed an angel. Watch over us. losing you is the hardest thing I've ever had to do. Until I see you again son
