

Jessica Ann Shaffer

January 17, 1947 - August 29, 2023

Jessica Ann Shaffer, 76, died on Tuesday, August 29, 2023 at her home in Katy, Texas.

Ms. Shaffer was born on January 17, 1947 in Coffeyville, Kansas to Milburn (Mib) Edens and Fern Marie Edens (Baker). Jessica was reared in Copan, Oklahoma and received her education in the Copan school system. After graduating from school, Jessica married Evan Lynn Shaffer in 1965 in Sedan, Kansas. Jessica was employed by Copan Public Schools, May Brothers, Phillips Petroleum Company and Bell Finance.

Jessica was known as and answered to “grandma” to everyone within a three county radius. Jessica enjoyed Copan football, Copan FFA, playing bingo, watching the Green Bay Packers and catching up with her cousins. One of Jessica’s most treasured activities was raising and showing pigs with her grandchildren, great grandchildren and her sister, Vicki.

Ms. Shaffer is preceded in death by her parents, two grandsons, Mark Leal Jr. and Jeremiah Shaffer, two great grandsons, Marcus Eli Perdasofpy-Leal and Chance Bentley Shaffer.

Ms. Shaffer is survived by her son Roger Shaffer of Tulsa, Oklahoma, daughter Michelle Duncan and husband Adam of Katy, Texas, sister Vicki Wade and husband Mike of Copan, Oklahoma, grandsons James, Cody and Justin, granddaughters Brandi and Tommie, great grandchildren Isabell, Savannah, Jayden, Keegan, Jaxon, Camdyn, Carson, Jaxson and Addison & a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Visitation will be held from 5:00pm-7:00PM, Tuesday, September 5, 2023 at Stumpff Funeral Home and Crematory, in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

“ She always was the purest of spirits and full of love and forgiveness. She worked harder than anyone I know to take care of her family.

We had such fun as children on Sundays at “Grandma Baker”. Lots of memories of storm nights in “Grma Baker’s”cellar.

She surely has one of the brightest of Heavenly Crowns and biggest of Mansions reserved for her. I did and do love her.

I just can't believe that Jessica is gone. She was like my sister. We grew up together and I have a lot of memories of our childhood. I will miss her dearly.
