“ John was a great person with whom I had worked around at Phillips. He was always willing to give a helping hand. Johnnie, now 'Go live high on that mountain for your work here on earth is done". My thoughts to his family, please always remember him in a special way.

“ John and I worked together at Washington County for about 6 or 7 years. We had been close to life long friends, We went to the same grade school together and remained friends on thru high school. John was a good solid person. He ask me to help get him on at the county several years ago. We remained close friends until I retired in 06. I moved away and we lost contact of each other. HE WAS A GOOD MAN.
