

Juanita Wyvone Hardman

June 22, 1941 - February 29, 2020

Wyvone Hardman was determined to see if there really was a rock 'n' roll heaven and left this world on February 29, 2020. True to form she passed away on a leap year. She always said the W for Wyvone also stood for weird.

Wyvone served in a variety of civic capacities, Girl Scout leader to all three of her daughters, nursery school teacher, Sunday school teacher, volunteer for Meals on Wheels, PTA member and countless other volunteer positions for three generations of children. We can't remember everything she did for us as kids, sorry mom we didn't take notes. She was known for being a stickler for table manners and for correcting one's grammar, also for three generations of children.

She never met a stranger and welcomed everyone in her home (2 or 4 legged). Unfortunately, her filing system consisted of the sofa, table, chair or any flat surface so one often might not be able to find a place to sit. She enjoyed cheating at cards, singing to classic rock, being with family, especially if they completed her "errand list" of 1,000 things and places, and reading anything she could get her hands on. She also enjoyed sharing "stories".

Each Christmas three generations of children were gifted the infamous bottomless gift bag, usually consisting of strange one of a kind clearance items, she had collected over the year. If there were three of the same shirts on sale you received all three shirts. Naturally, these bags were all prepared with love. Wyvone was a doomsday prepper before it was cool. During the zombie apocalypse one might dine on 10 pounds of pinto beans and industrial size jars of spaghetti sauce from 1999. And again, all would be welcomed.

She was preceded in death by the father of her four children, Jerry Lee Hardman, whom she loved to her dying day.

She leaves behind her children Cindy Dunn (Darrell), Rebecka Harris (Tracie), Karen Demeny, and Jerry Hardman Jr., siblings Jule Maskrod (Sheryl), Janet Shrum, Merry Johnson (Loren). Wyvone also danced and air drummed her way out on a plethora of grandkids (18!), great-grandkids (6!), nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

In lieu of flowers, Wyvone requests you kindly make a donation to ARF in Bartlesville, or Agape Mission in Bartlesville, if so inclined.

“Wyvonne was defiantly different but very much loved by all who met her. My fondest memories of Wyvonne are no matter what was happening I never saw get mad. She always stayed cool and calm. She would figure out away to make everyone feel comfortable in the end. She was the God Parent to both of my daughter's and they both loved her dearly. She is someone who will be missed by all who new her. Remember we all love you Wyvonne and be sure to save us a place.

“We have a lot of memories with Wyvonne, but I will pick 3. First time we met was at a Girl Scout meeting about a parade coming up. She insisted on walking in the parade. We tried to talk her out of it, but with no luck. She came pulling a wagon and 9 months pregnant with Becky. All of us leaders were a little worried, but she made it. Not to long after Becky was born they moved next to us in Ruby. We were outside with our kids and saw a snake. I went and got the 22 rifle and shot at the snake. But I missed and put a hole in their shed. She said alright Lynne I am taking the kids in now. And went in the trailer.

We took our great grandson to Branson to see the Titanic and on the way back we stop to see her. I ordered pizza for all of us and clean up after we ate. A nd there was Aunt Wyvonne sitting in the dinning room dapping away with him. To this day he still talks about it.

We will all miss her but know we will see her again when GOD calls us.

“Dearest Wyvonne, Thank you for being my friend at a time when I felt I had no worth!! Back then, we were both young and had moved into a new neighborhood. It was you that listened to my pain and did not judge. You were a good friend and blessed my life. My favorite memory was when you and Jerry came to visit after you had moved to New York. You were staying with us and wanted to take us out to eat. You wanted us to go somewhere where they served good fajitas. I said, What’s that?” I had never heard of them. Well, we ended up at the old Alamo Restaurant, where we had the best fajitas ever! We shared great conversation, had a wonderful time together, and I became a fajita lover too!! Wyvonne, Paul and I have always loved you and Jerry, and are happy that you are now together again! God be with you my dear and unique friend! I love you!!

“Aunt Wyvonne, there are so many memories to share. I wish you could have met my boys, I know you would have loved them. I know that you are dancing in the streets of Heaven and watching over us all. Please know that you were and still are loved deeply and missed greatly. I'll see you again someday, until then help keep us all safe. Love you, Sarah Louise Stone
