“ Karen was such an amazing woman and I thank God that we were brought together at such a young age and that we loved each other so deeply. She was an original full of love, compassion and giggles and my bestie throughout our almost entire lives. The memories we shared, the tears we shared, the hopes, dreams and laughs we shared. Not gone, forever in my heart and soul. See u again someday, bestie. Give Dad and Carl a big hug and kiss from me when you see them. I love you...

Karen you are loved so much by us all and our hearts are broken without you. You are with your beloved Steve now and no longer in pain but will be missed by all of us left here. We will see you again. I love you so much little Sister and will see you again someday. Rest in peace, take care of Robert for us like you did in your younger years. You were the best. I want to pick up my phone and tell you a funny or stupid thing I did to make us giggle I love and miss you like crazy

Karen I miss you so much. You were such a sweet, loving, kind baby sister. A piece of all of us is gone forever. I know you are in Steve's arms and without a pain or worry but it's still so difficult for all of us left behind. I know you are with Robert up there in heaven too. Until we meet again my sweet sister.

I only had the pleasure of meeting Karen a few times over the years and remember her friendliness and the love she had for her mother and sisters. We send them all our love and prayers to the family. Rest in peace and God's loving embrace. Sincerely, Olivia and Steve Elcano

Kate was such a sweet kid growing up. I watched (Facebook) as she showed so much love for her girls and Steve. I know they are missing their mom but know she is right there by Steve in heaven. RIP cousin.
