“ Kenny Cross: The eternal prankster, yet always a gentleman. (Who will now hide the pop?) You'll be on my mind with each mountain run or mountain snow, any great steak, and every dessert. You certainly enjoyed this life. It was my privilege to be first your student and then your co-worker.

“ I had Coach as an Accounting teacher - loved him, he was a sweet man. In that day he made the guys "fly" (planking on a tall stool) in front of the class if they were causing troublethose were the days when a teacher could give some dicipline :)

“ I knew Ken through the teaching profession. I started teaching at Bartlesville Central Jr. High in 1968.
I really got to know the kind, gentle, concerned spirit of Ken when we worked together on the school painting crew during a few different summers. Ken was always wearing a smile and enjoyed having fun.
I want you to know that my prayers are with Ken's family and loved ones. You have to be great people because (if for no other reason) you knew Ken.
God will bless you.
