January 2, 1943 - May 11, 2024

Kenneth Wayne Hogue went home to his Heavenly father May 11, 2024, in Barnsdall, Oklahoma, at the age of 81.

Kenneth was born to his parents Elbert and Florence Hogue in Pawhuska, OK, on January 2, 1943. After finishing the 9th grade, he began work in the oilfield where he retired in 2008. In 1972 Kenneth married the love of his life Joyce Hogue. Kenneth loved Jesus and spreading the word of God. He also enjoyed tending to his garden, playing his guitar, and spending time with his loving family.

Preceding Kenneth in death are his parents, Elbert and Florence Hogue; wife, Joyce Hogue; Siblings, Sam Hogue, Donald Hogue, Judy Sisk, and Martha Schmidt.

He is survived by his children, Richard Hogue and his wife Tamara; and Chance Hogue; his grandchildren, Shelby Jones and her husband Travis; Keaton Hogue and his partner Emily; and Maddesin Hogue; his great-grandchildren, Brycen Hogue, Elley Dean, Tycen Kesler, and Daxxon Dean.

His family is comforted in knowing Wayne is home with the Lord and will continue to build their faith remembering Wayne's favorite verse, Romans 10:9, and his favorite way to end every conversation, "put your trust in Jesus, that's the most important thing, put Jesus #1 in your life".

In lieu of flowers please make donations in remembrance of Kenneth Hogue to the Barnsdall Disaster Relief Fund. Donations can be made at any American Heritage Bank location, or you can mail a check to AHB, P.O. Box 529, Barnsdall, OK 74002

“ I didn't have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Wayne here on earth. But, hearing his precious testimony of Jesus, I will get that pleasure in heaven! We have followed his story thru Kenny Schenk storm chaser. Our prayers are with his family that Jesus will wrap you in His peace that passeth all understanding. Thank you for your example of faith in our Lord, it has meant a great deal to me.
