I'm sure you have my father confused with another man. With both his degree and DD214 in hand I can attest to their validity. Being raised by the man I can also assure you he was not a child molester. It would be in good taste to remove this post and publicly apologize in the same manner as the accusations were made.

“ Dear Susan and family,
Justin, Heidi and I have fond memories of the holidays and other times spent with you all. Justin still remembers Uncle Larry coaxing him out from under the kitchen table at Grampy and Grammy's house. Larry always made Justin feel safe. Prayers of strength as your family journeys through this time of loss and grief.
