“ My cousin, Larry Calvin Miller...you will be so missed by so many. There is no doubt in my mind that when you went to Heaven last week the gates swung wide open for you & standing there to greet you were your dad, your uncles & aunts (both Millers & Spears), & all your friends that went before you. The world is a sadder place without you in it, but was made so much more joyful because you were here. And like I always told you...you were the only guy I knew who could still rock a mullet! With all my love, with all my prayers....Carol Bullard

“ I always enjoyed Larry telling us at Tri City TV about people letting him know about seeing him on TV. He told me some kids in Wal-Mart wanted his autograph because he was a TV star. Larry was on TV a lot, not just on Sunday mornings but during the week as well. He and his brother and sister in law which are co-pastors of Warriors for Christ Terry and Tina Miller were even on live TV at their New Year EVE Parties that featured live Christian bands and free food. Sure we are going to miss him, but we also know he is with our Lord and savior now. God bless his immediate and extended family. Tony Gan

“ Word's cannot express the overwhelming sadness felt in the loss of such a good man. There are very few people in this world who could compare to Larry with his huge open heart, accepting of everyone. I pray you will let the memories of his life comfort you and be encouraged that the God he served is holding him in his arms and has cloaked him in heaven's peace. Please allow the love of your family and friends to embrace you in your time of grief. Larry was more than a cousin to me, he was also a friend who remained in touch over the years, who always made me laugh and feel missed. Rest in peace dear cousin.

“ I knew of Larry Miller from afar for years and years by people I knew that he ran with. He wasn't a Christian then. Then he started detailing our cars for probably 20 years. Through that time I saw changes come over him and heard great things about him. Seven years ago my whole world fell apart with 3 family deaths in a row and a divorce. On a fluke I was invited to go to his church on a Wednesday night. After that I put my self back together and continued to go there. There's no one that had a bigger heart than he did. I love you Larry. I'm jealous because you got to go before me. Lord be with his family.

“Larry was not just a friend, he was my brother. I met Larry back in the late 60's. We got through all the difficult years, and then he blossomed like a flower in the ministry. He was a true gift of God for the people in Bartlesville. He could always be found out and about, helping the lost be found. My stepson got in trouble and Larry would Minister at the jail where my step son was a few times. He helped him so much to get off the drugs. He would call and check on him everyday to make sure he was on the right path, for that I will be eternally grateful. Larry Miller I love you and will miss you terribly. But I know you walking on the street of Gold with our Lord and Savoir Jesus Christ. Prayers for the entire family as you go through the grieving processes. Much love to you all. God Bless this family and keep them in your arms for the comfort and peace they will need.
