September 15, 1943 - December 12, 2018

Lorita Mae Hollis, 75, of Dewey, died Wednesday, December 12, 2018, following a feisty 3 year battle after her stroke.

Lorita was born September 15, 1943 in Delaware, OK to Raymond Paul Collins and Virginia Mae Dodd.

She held many significant positions with the state of Montana and Wells Fargo in California. Later, she was a bookkeeper and corporate secretary for Michael's Carpet and Sleep Center in Bartlesville, OK. She retired after 20 years of working at Michael's.

Lorita enjoyed watching movies of all kinds, with her favorites being anything related to Star Trek.

She will be remembered for her big heart, especially as it related to her family and animals. Lorita loved cats and would have taken every stray home.

Anyone who knew Lorita will also remember her passion for very sweet iced tea.

Lorita is survived by her daughter Sheryl Nichols of Bozeman, MT, her son David Nichols and wife Christy of Dewey, OK, her brother Michael Burton and wife Kathy of Bartlesville, OK, numerous grandchildren and a host of other relatives.

Lorita's final words to her daughter on Thanksgiving were "I love you" and in keeping with that tradition, "Mom, we love you, too".
