

Margaret Fay Hubler

August 28, 1943 - August 9, 2025

Margaret Fay Hubler, 81 of Bartlesville passed away peacefully on August 9th, 2025. Margaret was born August 28, 1943 in Washunga, Oklahoma.

Margaret enjoyed spending time with her grandsons talking about all kinds of subjects and getting her nails done with her great granddaughter. She enjoyed spending time with her Brother and Sisters, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends reminiscing and looking for fun new things to do.

Margaret liked to travel, having taken many trips and cruises over the years. She also liked to plant flowers each year in her yard. Margaret was also an avid Cat lover and always had a couple.

Margaret retired from Phillips Petroleum Co. E & P Land Administration after 18 years in 1998. After retirement she worked part time at Archers Cleaners.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents Dewey & Bessie Moody, husband Don O. Hubler, son Jeffery Hubler, grandson Jonathon Hubler.

Margaret is survived by son Mike Hubler and wife Bonnie of Dewey, grandsons Josh Hubler, John Hubler and wife Taylor, Tristan Hubler, Daniel Hubler and wife Emily, Great Granddaughter Iris Hubler, Great Grandson Samson Hubler, brother Edward Moody and wife Alice, sisters Grace Cook, her twin sister Lola Lanius and Dorothy Shaw.

In lieu of flowers please donate to the American Heart Association.

“ I worked with Margaret at Phillip’s and we quickly became the best of friends. Even after Margaret retired & I left Phillips we remained best friends, no matter where we went together we always had so much fun. To say she will be deeply missed is an understatement.

Margaret was "my roomie" as she called it for a short time at Ignite in July...I just loved her and I'm so sorry that I didn't get back out to visit her..
