“ Marilyn was a sweetheart. Always so kind and thoughtful. I helped her when her mother went the nursing. I was the neighbor who lived next door to Marilyn parents. My husband and I bought five acres and built the house west of their house. I still live there and think of Marilyn often and her parents.
I am sure Marilyn is with our Lord and enjoying not being in pain anymore. Debbie Davies

“ Great memories working with Jess and Marilyn on parades and ball teams/field. Wish I could be there Saturday to celebrate her life but unfortunately due to my own health issues I am unable to attend. Rest in Heaven my friend, you certainly earned your place. My thoughts and prayers are with Mark, Matt, and Michael as well as the rest of the family.
