“ We knew Mark from school in Bartlesville and got reacquainted in Tulsa living down the street from each other as we started our families and careers. We learned to fly in a small airplane we bought together. I will always remember he and I taking a flight around the Tulsa metro late one evening on a calm clear night while our families spend some time together. It was an amazing evening. I am so sad to learn of his death. We have fond memories of Mark and will pray for all of you who called him family or friend.
