

Martin Ray Strain

June 22, 1954 - September 29, 2014

Martin Ray Strain

Martin Ray Strain left us unexpectedly September 29, 2014 in Aurora, Colorado to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ as well as his dad, Harold Strain and his sister, Melanie Ann Penny. He was only 60 years old. Marty was born June 22, 1954 in Borger, Texas to Harold and Ann Strain. His schooling included terms at Borger, also Bordeaux, France, and Bartlesville High School where he graduated. Following high school he attended Central State University at Edmond,, Okla., where he graduated with honors in computer science. Marty's career was just opening up as he was teaching computer science courses at Central State when he was severely injured in a car accident. Still he maintained his interest in computer science and all things computer related and always maintained a positive attitude and his sense of humor. A few days before his passing his journal noted briefly "I have found ease, integrity, prosperity, joy and growth."

Marty never married but loved his nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, all who lived near him in Colorado. He was especially close to his brother and sister-in-law, Scott and Joan Strain.

He was preceded in death by his father, Harold Strain and sister, Melanie Penny. Survivors include his mother, Ann Strain of Bartlesville, brother, Scott Strain and wife, Joan, Joan's sister, Terrie Leonard, his niece, Teressa Mahoney and husband Brad; nephews, Pete Strain and wife Jana; David Strain and wife Shannon; great nieces and nephews, Cora Strain, Noah

Strain, Conner Strain, Keaton Mahoney, Madeleine Mahoney, Weston Mahoney, Wyatt Mahoney, Violet Strain and Chauncey Strain all of Parker, Colorado.

Marty's memorial service in Bartlesville will be held at 2 P.M. on Saturday, October 18, 2014 in the Stumpff Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Tom Cox officiating.

If desired, memorials may be made to the Baptist Children's Home, 12700 East 76th Street North, Owasso, Okla., 74055.
