“ I knew Mary Williams at Dewey Rose Hill Church. We all loved her and she loved the Lord and all of us. She helped with the children and when they saw her come in, they would run to her to get a hug. When you asked how she was, she would say, I'm fat and sassy. My husband would call her Mary contrary. She was always ready to help where needed. She will be missed. My love and prayers are with you. Virginia Thomison
