“ I didn't get to go the day that were taking pictures but I do have a memory on one of our visits. Mikey woke up and noticed Jeff sitting there looked at his mom and very told her hurry up and help him sit up, Jeff was there and he wanted to talk to him, like Tamie should have already done. I probably wouldn't have gotten to really know him if him and Jeff hadn't been friends. We didn't really get to hang out but messaged alot on messenger mainly how we were both sick and how we coped with it. I knew by the things he said, Tamie had been his rock, how she had always been there for him and how they sit up nights talking and crying. Other chats we had were me venting to him about Jeff being a butthead that day and him telling me everytime, "Oh well Jeff will be Jeff". RIP Mikey, you were loved and will be greatly missed.
