

Reva Myrtle Fry

December 19, 1917 - July 14, 2011

REVA MYRTLE FRY

Reva Myrtle Fry, 93, resident of Nowata died Thursday at her residence.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 P.M., Thursday in the Living Word Family Church Interment will be in the Nowata Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of the Stumpff Nowata Funeral Home.

Reva Myrtle Fry was born on December 19, 1917 at Nowata the daughter of Oliver Earl and Mary Rachel (Duskey) Manley.. she was raised in Nowata and married Everett Fry in 1935. They both worked in the shipyard in Portland, Oregon during WWII. After the war Mr. Fry was a pipeline welder and they traveled all over the country while he worked. He preceded her in death in 1958 and she came back to Nowata to make her home. She was a member of the Church of god.

Reva is survived by one daughter Sharon Shoemaker of Nowata eight grandchildren and numerous great grandchildren.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

HD

“ I am so saddened to hear of the passing of Aunt Reva. She was such a sweet lady. I remember when Grandma Ruby and I would walk over and have coffee with her. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Heather Manley Dawson - July 19, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ I am sorry to see Aunt Reva's funeral announcement in today's paper. I wish that I had made a trip to see her once in a while. I will try to get off and come for the funeral Thursday.

Mike

Mike Johnson - July 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM