“In loving memory of Pamela Sue Williams...God brought us to you on that painful day. My daughter and I prayed for you, as that was all that we could do. I asked God to forgive for any sins and to cover you in the righteous blood of Jesus Christ. I hope to meet you in heaven one day. Your a sweet Angel now, flying in His heavenly Kingdom. May you Rest In Peace and may your family receive comfort and healing in the strong name of the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Amen.

You were born in Anaheim California in 1960 and I was born in Anaheim, California in 1969. I have a feeling we were both born at Anaheim General Hospital, and I grew up in Anaheim Hills, Ca. I moved to Pryor, OK 10 years ago, and was brought to pray over you on March 21st, 2026.
