February 19, 1937 - December 3, 2025

Patricia Ann McCullough, a beloved mother, devoted teacher, and active member of her community, passed away on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, in Barnsdall, Oklahoma, at the age of 88.

Patricia was born on February 19, 1937, to Leo Salkil and Ethel Faye (Vulgamore) Salkil. She was a proud graduate of Barnsdall High School.

Patricia dedicated her life to working with children. She worked as a compassionate teacher at Head Start and carried that mission into her personal life, driving many children to church and actively leading children's church services. She was known for her boundless energy and fun spirit, and was famous for being a better skater than most of the kids on Wednesday night church trips!

Patricia also had a career at Phillips 66 as a key puncher before her retirement, and she later worked for several years at Felisha's Flowers in Skiatook, Oklahoma.

In her leisure time, Patricia was a very talented crafter who loved to crochet. She also enjoyed being on a bowling team and spending quiet moments sitting on the porch watching the birds.

She was first married to Mark Shaw, and later married Alvin McCullough, to whom she was married until his passing.
