“ I am a distant cousin. I am so sorry to hear of the death of Dennis. Also I had lost track of Lucile and Henry. I would love to correspond with Donna if she gets this message. My mother was Cecilia Bonifield Joyner. I have letters that you may want copies from Lucile to her and Wilma.

“ Words escape me at this time. "I'm sorry for your loss" seems so canned. "He'll be missed" goes without saying. And we all know that "he is in a better place." He was a wonderful man and the last true "pastor" that I have had. I love you all and am praying for you at this time. Love and hugs, ClaudiaC
