“ oh Bobert you will be missed by so many, i remember the first time i met you you was so young, I asked you one day if that skate board was glued to your feet. i never seen you without that board. i will always think of you and the song by john mellencamp pink houses. i rem you played that often because you asked me one day what song i liked. You was an amazing kid so talented. in many many ways. i will cherish the day you came and sat on my porch and and watched the kids play ball until Ron sweeten showed up lol fun day. i know you was laughing your butt off because that the day d.j. and kenny got arrested over a dumb skateboard. to funny because i didn't believe the cop because he too was laughing. but you never let me forget that day so many years ago. fly high sweetheart. love katt and the ferry family.

“ Even in some of your harshest moments, every time you talked to me you were positive, and hardly ever short of radiant.
I'm hate that you're gone.
I hate that you felt it was your time, when I feel like you had so much more to offer in this world.
I love you man, and I hope you are at peace now.

Fly high, Bobbert.
