

Suzanne R Harlan

May 20, 1950 - September 6, 2022

Suzanne, your life was such a blessing to me, your memories a treasure given to me.

I feel that time will pass so very slowly for me in these days ahead after you are gone from my life. But I know I will always cherish those wonderful memories God has given me of you my dear sweet Suzanne.

A wonderful eternal memory of you until we meet at last again. Those special will always bring a smile.

You will always have that special place in my heart.

Love you always, William.

“ You will be missed, Aunt Suzie! You were the absolute best birthday clown, you taught me how to drive, and you were always so generous to me and Emerson and Levi. I know you're singing ALL the best hymns with Jesus in His heavenly choir. I look forward to seeing you again someday. Love you more!
Love, your favorite niece 🥰

At one point in her hospital stay, she was visited by the chaplain. At that time she was unable to speak after having a stroke and just a few words in a short repetition over and over.... Day.... after day....

One day the hospital chaplain stopped in for a brief visit with her and to say prayer for her.

I told the chaplain her love and passionate heart for singing in the church choir. The chaplain began immediately singing the old rugged cross and suddenly her words just flowed freely as they both sang together.

I was absolutely speechless when they had finished the a second song together.

I could not believe what I just heard.

But I did believe.....

What dedication and passionate heart you had for the lord Suzanne. Your faith in God and singing his praises has never never wavered a bit through the years.

Love you and will miss you deeply.

“ Bill and Family I was so sorry and shocked to hear of the passing of Suzanne. Was so glad I had a very good conversation with both of you last week. During some tough times for me, Suzanne was a good sounding board. She always wanted what is best for her friends. I always enjoyed our conversations when she cut my hair. Such a caring and personable person. Prayers for you Bill and Suzette. She seemed to always talk about the two of you.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Suzanne, but I will share only one. She sat by me in choir at First Baptist Church. We had a great time harmonizing together. Not only during choir practice but also Sunday service worship time. We probably shouldn't have during practice, but we couldn't help ourselves.

“ We are speechless. Stunned at this news. Susanne was a truly kind, generous and faithful to her God person. She lived and shared her faith with everyone and we enjoyed sharing many church services with her. As well as going to school for years of growing up. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Suzanne practiced 1 Chronicles 18:9, "serving with a perfect heart and a willing mind." She served the needs of so many in all areas. She was a missionary among us.

*Our hearts go out to you William and to Suzanne's family and loved ones. I can see from the loving comments that she must have been a friend to all and a loving person. I'm sorry I didn't have the opportunity to meet her, but seeing how happy you were having her in your life tells me you found happiness together. We are sending love and comfort in this difficult time. With God's guidance you will find peace.
