

Thomas Paul Davenport

September 29, 1970 - March 3, 2024

Thomas Paul Davenport passed away unexpectedly March 3, 2024, in Bartlesville, Oklahoma at the age of 53.

Thomas was born on September 29, 1970, in Long Beach, California, to Paul Edward Davenport and Teresa Ann Greulich (Sadler). Tom attended high school at Lenapah High School in Lenapah, OK, before entering the workforce. He was most recently working with his dump truck pouring concrete under his business Davenport Trucking. Thomas previously owned and operated Rockhard Stone Fabrication cutting and installing granite in Bartlesville and surrounding areas.

Tom married the love of his life on July 7, 2007, with their children, immediate family and closest friends in attendance. His biggest accomplishments to him were being a successful owner of two different businesses as well as being a Papa to all his grandchildren. Tom was passionate about riding his motorcycle, building toys, race cars, and RC cars. He enjoyed doing work that required using his hands and he was very good at it. He loved his family and dogs very much.

Tom never met a stranger. He was always a friend to whomever he met. He was the most selfless man that was always willing to help. He would help look at your car, your sink, and everything in between.

Preceding him in death were his beloved wife Amy Davenport; grandfather, Talma Sadler; cousin, Laurie Sadler; grandma Georgia; and his grandpa Charley.

Thomas is survived by his father and step-mother, Paul and Shelia Davenport; mother and step-father, Teresa and Rex Greilich; his brother Chris Greilich; his children: Joshua, Stacia, Tiffany, Tara, Trentan and Taylor; 11 grandchildren; uncle James; best friends who are brothers: Ric Welshans (wife DeeAnna) and Daniel Dentmon, along with many other family members, friends and fellow bikers a part of Ride the 918.

Memorial Service will be held at 2:00 pm on Sunday, March 10, 2024 at Elks Lodge 1060 Swan Dr, Bartlesville, Oklahoma 74006.

A procession for bikes and vehicles will meet at Backroads Bar and Grill at 12:30pm in Dewey, OK to ride to the service.

Memorial Contributions can be made to: Ride the 918 via Cashapp:

“ Going to be missed by so many. I got your back and will look after your girl and them grandbabies. I told you the day Parker Dean was born I would fill the role as needed and always be there. You take that high road in the sky and I'll help out down here. 💔
