“ I was in Bartlesville one night visiting my friends and Andy was on that list. My car broke down and without even being asked, Andy offered to load my car in his trailer and drive it all the way home to Tulsa. He's saved me so many times I couldn't count them all. He was and always be one of the greatest friends I've ever had. I'll always miss you Andy. See you on the other side my friend. I love you.
